SOCCER TEAM INCLUDES THREE HALFBACKS AND TWO FULLBACKS

Halfbacks Are Center of the Team and Are Called Upon For Offensive as Well as Defensive Work; the Fullbacks Are Used For Defence Only, but Must Be Quick Mentally and Fleet of Foot.

BY E. B. HANAWALT.
Supervisor of Physical Training in Los Angeles Schools.
LOS ANGELES, CALIF., Oct. 22.—You are responsible now for anyone else for those halfbacks on each soccer team and those three fullbacks. You are responsible for the center of the team, half way between their forward and their goal. They are called upon first to defend their goal, under all conditions, and when the ball is in their half of the field the halfbacks must remember their own goal, play safe and give their opponents no chance to score. It is far better to be sure of the defense of their own goal than to risk a chance kick merely for the sake of getting the ball out of the danger zone.

Must Advance Ball.
On the other hand he will be called upon to advance the ball up to the opponent's goal, and occasionally to take a shot yourself at the guarded goal.
Because of the halfback's middle position he will be called upon to cover the entire field, and must necessarily be strong and able to sprint first up the field and then back again, which requires that the halfback be good. The halfback's play must be skillful as to be able to carry the ball forward or stop an opponent's ball with your own goal as the occasion demands.

Two Fullbacks.
There are two fullbacks on each team, who have positions of defense and responsibility, courage and quick judgment. If you are a fullback, you are the last line of defense, for the ball must never get past you.

Only Welsh's Title Attracts the Fans

Coast Considers Style Unpleasant

BY JAY DAVIDSON.
LOS ANGELES, CALIF., Oct. 22.—Fred Welsh is slowly working his way to the coast on the Vanderbilt circuit and should be here in another month at the rate he is traveling now. Judging from the persistence in showing round the silence of high-society circles and the sporting press, he will be welcome to talk business on a reasonable basis when he arrives. When he landed in America he had an inflated idea as to his worth as an attraction. His price and the terms he named to promoters and challengers were so stiff that they were not even considered.

Welsh himself is no attraction, here at least. He never was a strong card player and the fact that he is a Welshman is not a factor in his popularity. But now that he has the world's title hanging in his belt, he would be worth something as an attraction. But and in the amount that he demands. He could have the "Thanksgiving" date, if he wanted it and would be reasonable in his terms and conditions.

Joe Rivers is reasonably certain of being one of the Thanksgiving day headliners, while he gets another chance. He wants a return match with Welsh and another crack at the title. He is about the only real good drawing card to come along since the "Thanksgiving" date, but he wants too much money for a mere promoter to consider.

YALE BUILDS STRONG FOOTBALL TEAM

In past years three eleveners have been the average number at Yale, with the other men filling in as substitutes or having individual practice.
This innovation of having a large number of eleveners is expected to result ultimately in a very strong line for the variety. The line has been weaker than the backfield so far.

TWO FOOTBALL GAMES SCHEDULED SATURDAY

Two football games will be played at Washington park, Saturday afternoon. The first game will be between the 1914 high school team and the 1914 infantry eleven and the second between the Y. M. C. A. and the Texas School of Mines.

Both games promise to be extremely close. The high school team has been practicing hard all week to save the sophomore and senior teams. The 1914 infantry eleven is a very strong team. The Y. M. C. A. will be much faster than the team that played the New Mexico A. & M. college. Several new players will appear in the line up. It will be the first game for the school of Mines, and will test the strength of the eleven.

HOPPE, DEFEATED, STILL LEADS INMAN

Montreal, Quebec, Oct. 22.—Playing their first bout of 1914 points at English Lillards, Melbourne Inman defeated Willie Hoppe, a score of 1488 to 111 in the last session Thursday afternoon and evening.
The greatest surprise of the match was the splendid showing Hoppe made against his English opponent in the day in the evening session when he ran up a total of 211, while Inman was making the necessary 200 to win the result of Thursday's game will leave Hoppe with a comfortable lead.

If the Federal league comes into the fold of organized baseball it will be because Ben Johnson has passed out as a team ball. Although peace talk is plentiful, Ben Johnson is in the background intended to resist all assaults and prepared to fire on the flag of truce, the Red Cross or any other discipline imposed by those interfering.

Cardinals Not Yet Wrecked

If reports are true that all but two of the Cardinals are in the hands of the St. Louis team have been signed beyond hopelessness on the part of the Poles, Huggins' club is far from being wrecked. Pencil's loss is the serious one. Even so, the pitching staff of the Cards, as well as the catching, is still good.

Ban Johnson Resolutely Defies Feds

BY JOHN E. WRAY.
ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 22.—Good old Dope, after being run down and backed over by George Stallings' 1914 model, now cylinder apparently fully restored in all his members.
His quick recovery is said to be due to the coming of the football season, which is good medicine for Dope. Dope remarked to his men a few hours before he was missed that it was easy to dodge those football tracks, which some coaches dignify by the name of machines.

Can't Blame Dope

FIGHTS HAVE FAITH IN LANGFORD: MANY THINK HIM GREAT FIGHTER

Fight Between Johnson and Langford Would Be Great Battle, but Probably Would Not Draw Well; Martin Leaves Soon to Further Negotiations For the Proposed Johnson-Willard Fight.

BY R. B. CADDELL.
of theatrical managers of the southern circuit.

No new developments in the proposed Johnson-Willard fight have transpired. But Martin, manager of the Pastime A. C., expects to go to Kansas City this week to hold a conference with Jack Curran who is handling the Willard end of the bout. Martin's offer of $10,000 for the fight may bring it to a close.

Nothing has been heard from Abe Attel regarding a match offered him by Mr. Martin for Thanksgiving day with "Gus" Stewart of Wheeling, West Va. But a reply to a second telegram from Martin to San Francisco is momentarily expected.

Dwyer has leaped into the limelight as a boxing center. For some time small events have been staged there, but nothing of the real championship caliber. A crowd of sporting men of that city has raised a $20,000 purse for a fight between Paddy Martin and Freddie Welsh to take place during the middle of January, at which time the Western livestock show is held.

St. Paul and is reported to have accepted the offer and announced he will post a $10,000 forfeit and meet Welsh on any financial terms providing he will agree to 125 pounds at 7 o'clock in the afternoon. The offer has been widely publicized.

Should this event fall through it is understood the syndicate will offer $10,000 for a fight between McFarland and Mike Gibbons at 145 pounds ringside, to be fought at the same time.

"Kid" Lee, the former 80 pound prize fighter, well known to the fans, is still in the land of the unknown. The "Kid" referee broke jail at Morgantown, N. M., and has been found. At the El Paso police station the "Kid" is a prominent figure on the blackboard. His name in big letters appears on it with a little notice to the policemen and detectives to "pick him up" if he comes here.
